Mary Kingsley's Fur Hat

Famous for her eccentric behaviour and appearance, Mary Kingsley wore this moleskin hat during her travels in West Africa.

Often described as "an extremely amusing woman with a strange taste for odd forms of danger", Mary Kingsley came to adventuring late in life, despite the fact that exploration seemed to be in her blood. The niece of a well-respected travel writer, she spent much of her life helping her father in his studies of African religions and laws, and nursing her mother; however, before her first trip to Africa in 1892, she had never travelled further than Paris.

All that changed when her mother and father died within a few weeks of each other when she was 30 years old. Finding herself alone for the first time, Kingsley made the radical decision to continue her father's work in Africa. Within five years, she had travelled across large sections of equatorial West Africa. She became the first European to enter some parts of Gabon. She made extensive collections for the British Museum and climbed the region's highest peak, 4,000-metre Mungo Mah Lobeh (literary "the Throne of Thunder"; now known as Mount Cameroon). On her return to the UK, she spent three years hosting lectures on her travels and wrote several books about her experiences.

At a time when it wasn't appropriate for a woman to walk the streets of London unaccompanied, travelling in previously unexplored areas of West Africa entirely alone was decidedly eccentric behaviour. However, when accused of behaving improperly, Kingsley replied: "Neither the Royal Geographical Society's list, nor any other, of articles necessary to travellers in tropical climates makes mention of husbands."

She had equally firm views about what clothing was appropriate for travel, reportedly saying: "You have no right to go about Africa in things you would be ashamed to be seen in at home." She gained a reputation for eccentric dress, and wore this moleskin hat, now stored within the archives of the Royal Geographical Society, throughout her travels in West Africa. She got that moleskin hat while staying with the cannibalistic Feng tribe in the Gabon.

Kingsley went on to work as a nurse in Cape Town during the Boer War, and it was here, in 1900, that she died of heart failure. Her body was taken out to sea in a torpedo boat and she was given a military and naval funeral. Burial at sea was a unique honour for woman to receive at the time, and she was further honoured when the African Society was founded in her memory in 1901.

16 Mary Kingsley's exploration of Africa began when she_____.

- A decided to write travel books
- B was helping her famous uncle
- C had lost both of her parents
- D was already an old woman

17 Why did Mary begin to travel?

- A She had always dreamt to go to West Africa.
- B She wanted to go on with her father's research.
- C She had never had an opportunity to travel before.
- D She was sent to Africa by the British Museum.

18 What did Mary Kingsley do in Africa?

- A She discovered a cannibalistic tribe in the Gabon.
- B She wrote three books about equatorial West Africa.
- C She gathered material on unknown parts of Africa.
- D She became the first European to climb Mount Cameroon.

19 Mary was criticized for_____.

A ignoring social norms

B studying African religions

C taking part in the Boer War

D exposing herself to danger

20 Which of the following is NOT TRUE about Mary Kingsley

A She spent years taking care of her sick mother.

B She made a big contribution to the study of Africa.

C She was a member of the Royal African Society.

D She was highly praised for her deeds after death.

Task 5

Read the texts below. Match choices (A-H) to (21-26). There are two choices you do not need to use. Write your answers on the separate answer sheet.

These camps offer participants the opportunity to experience several different outdoor adventures during their summer weeklong programs. Activities may include: rock climbing at one of Alabama's own secluded climbing areas; airing in the Appalachian Mountains of Georgia, Tennessee, or North Carolina; exploring the underground world of caves in Alabama or Georgia, learning the basics of Whitewater kayaking and/or white water rafting on the Ocoee River in Tennessee! No experience necessary for this adventure of a lifetime! Please refer to the enclosed chart for potential locations and planned activities for each session of this camp... activities WILL vary according to session.

22

The summer of 2016 marked new territory for Cosby Expeditions... the first ever Llama Trek in the mountains of North Carolina! It was a fantastic adventure for the select few who dared to join us for the week of fun. Llamas carried our essentials, needed for spending 3 days in the mountains of North Carolina. The Llama Trek also offers adventurers the opportunity to experience several different outdoor activities including rock climbing and Whitewater rafting on the Ocoee River in Tennessee! Our week will feature 1 day of rock climbing, 3 days of trekking through the mountains of North Carolina with our llamas, and will end with our adrenaline-filled day of rafting.

23

This camp is for teens and adults who want to become more effective and efficient in the water sports. Once there, you'll find first-class paddling. But first of all the camp will focus on the rafting. With the onset of the spring snowmelt, the area serves up prime-time Whitewater rafting. Rafters flock to two rivers in particular: the forest-hemmed Skykomish and the wide-open, sun-drenched Wenatchee. Both offer rollicking fun for participants of all skill levels. Campers will be offered tours on both rivers. Welcome to aquatic nirvana!

24

This camp offers participants the opportunity to learn the basics and advanced techniques of rock climbing and Whitewater kayaking at various outdoor destinations throughout the southeast. This camp is designed for teens that have a desire to push their limits in adventure sports. Possible destinations may include stops in Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, and North Carolina. Experience is helpful, but not a requirement.

25

This camp is a shortened version of the Appalachian Explorer, and kept a little closer to "home" for those who aren't interested in a full week of wilderness camping and experiences. This camp will begin at Camp Cosby but will quickly move to the mountains of northern Alabama where campers will spend 2 days backpacking in some of the most beautiful areas of Alabama. The camp will then spend a day rock climbing destinations in the south. No experience necessary for this quick shot of adrenaline!

26

This camp offers trips for teens with concentrations in Marine Biology, Cultural Immersion, and Expedition. Teens live at Seven Palms Villa, a luxury villa in Runaway Bay, Jamaica. The beach is just a short walk from the villa with an amazing number of marine fish and corals in the reef. Campers snorkel every morning along the shallow reefs of the Caribbean Sea with their lifeguard trained counsellors. Afternoons are spent swimming with dolphins and stingray at Dolphin Cove, tubing down the clear waters of the Rio Bueno River, climbing the world famous Dunn's River Falls, and shopping at the local craft and fruit markets.

In this camp _____.

A participants can enjoy an adventurous water ride in spring

B campers can descend into the grottos and observe them

C a camping trip is included in the program of activities

D participants will get acquainted with scuba diving

E only two outdoor activities are on offer

F all necessary things will be carried by animals

G campers will be pleased with the perfect sightseeing

H experience is necessary for the adventures

Task 6

Read the text below. Choose from (A-H) the one which best fits each space (27-32). There are two choices you do not need to use. Write your answers on the separate answer sheet.

The Boy Scout Who Thought He Was Tintin

As with many great fictional heroes, there are several possible models who may or may not have inspired the character of the brave boy reporter Tintin. But one of the most likely was a Danish youngster named Palle Huld, (27) _____ to travel around the world in imitation of Jules Verne's Phileas Fogg. In his case, he was given just 46 days to accomplish the feat, wasn't allowed a companion and was forbidden to travel by aeroplane. Nevertheless, Huld managed it in 44 days. Nor was it only his age and dauntless spirit (28) _____. It was also his appearance. He had freckles, a snub nose and unruly bright-red hair.

Huld, (29) _____, was chosen from applicants, and set off among a storm of publicity in March. His voyage was not without mishaps, yet he made it home - much to the relief of his poor mother, (30) _____ during her boy's absence to help her cope with the stress.

The following year, the enterprising Huld wrote his own account of his adventures, A Boy Scout Around the World, (31) _____. His travels around the globe apparently gave him a taste for fame, too. He went on to become a distinguished actor, (32) _____, including Three Men In Search of a Troll.

A which was translated into several languages

B who at the age of 15 won a competition

C who had been prescribed sleeping pills

D that influenced his decision

E who was then working in an automobile dealership

F appearing in some 40 films

G that made him a truthful model for Tintin

H making his wishes come true
